OPINION OF THE JUDGES.

9) As regards the communication of the results of B and C cases, the Judges think that the suggestion of the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore may be adopted. The records will not then have to pass from court to court.

10) As regards the proposed modification of the charge sheet form, the Judges are of opinion that accused persons should know what the witnesses are expected to prove. That need not be stated in detail, but a brief statement showing the object of calling each witness could do no harm.

11) The accused is not entitled to know all the details of the police investigation, but he ought before his trial to know who is expected to give evidence against him and approximately on what points.

20) In 1912, on the suggestion of the Chief Court it was ordered that the charge sheet presented to the Court by the Police (A Report) should not be separated from the records of the case as was the practice till then, and that the form of charge sheet in force till then should be ~~changed~~ revised as suggested by the DG of Police. But no order was then passed in regard to the other two kinds of reports, namely, B & C Reports. The District Magistrate, Mysore, suggests that these also should form part of the records of the Court and that they should not be detached but that a column may be added for entry of final order so that it may be attached and sent to the Police. So far as this recommendation is concerned, both the Chief Court and the DG of Police are agreeable and the latter has submitted a revised form, and this may be approved.

2) Incidentally it came to notice that the form prescribed in the Government Order of 1912 has not yet been adopted, and when an enquiry was made, the ~~Chief~~ DG of Police brought to notice that the Chief Court had decided that the accused were entitled to a copy of the charge sheet, ~~that~~ the Chief Court also held that the accused is not entitled to copy of the information which was what should ~~have~~ be mentioned in the charge sheet under the Criminal Procedure Code. The result is that the accused will not be entitled to copy of the entry in Column 6 ("what each witness proves is called as to prove"). The DG. fears that the subordinate Magistracy will not be able to differentiate and summarise the omissions of this information completely from the charge sheet. In support of his view, he quotes the practice prevailing in Bengal. The procedure in Bengal originally contained similar information, but the present form does not provide for this information being supplied. The Madras & Bombay Rules provide for this information being supplied in the charge sheet. ~~Madras & Bombay~~. There seems no objection in principle to follow the practice prevailing in Bombay & Madras. The Bengal Rule gives no reason for this change; and ~~therefore~~

(Illegible) On going through the file, I find that the recommendation made, was that the disposal of B and C reports should be promptly intimated to the police by the Magistrates who dispose of these reports and if this object is to be secured, a slip should be attached to these reports, as in the case of A report, to be detached and sent to the police immediately after disposal. Those acquainted with District work do not require to be told that many B and C reports disposed of by Magistrates are shown by the police as pending; and it was with a view to this being avoided, that the recommendation was made. In the forms enclosed with the proposed Government order this matter appears to have been lost sight of. Column 8 provided in the A Report Form is perhaps for this purpose. It seems to me that column 8 suggested by Mr. K.R. Srinivasa Iyengar (vide his letter No. 5310/377 dated 9/11-2-1918) is preferable to the proposed column 8. If it is to be easily detached, there should be perforations separating it from the rest of the form.

(5) (4) Madras Form No. 56 does not contain heading No.9 which is inserted in samples of Forms B and C proposed to be introduced. I think heading No.9 as it is out of place over the signature of the Investigating officer who has to be made aware of the orders of the Magistrate and the result of the enquiry or trial if any. Column No.9 might be made to serve as the intimation slip and printed at the foot of the Form and separated from the rest by perforations. This column might contain all the information as column 8 of A Form.

(6) It should not be necessary to send to the District Magistrates the disposed of B and C Reports.

(16P) The forms A, B & C have come to possess a distinct significance. A means a charge sheeted case, B a false case & C an undetectable case and it will cause a lot of confusion if only one form is adopted for B & C cases. In the Police Manual also, the terms B & C forms are adopted (See Chap XVIV). If separate forms are done away with, the sections of the Police Manual in which these terms occur will have also to be suitably altered. I would therefore retain separate forms B & C. Only it is suitably worded which may also.

Separate forms for B & C. cases have been put up to distinguish the false from the undetectable case with reference to para 60. The column containing the information to be intimated to the Police is common to all the three forms and is made the last column in each to serve the intended purpose. Col 4 in B & C shows the differences

(25) The B & C forms put up are the same as those received, with letter No 5867/427 dt 24/27.2.19 from the Dy of Police with this difference, viz that Column 11 in each is altered so as to contain all the information given in col. 8 of the new A-form; please see suggestion made by the Dy of Police in para 44 of these notes.

Item 3 in col 11 seems to require alteration. It may perhaps be changed to 'Number of case on Police file'. It would perhaps be better to adopt the forms received with the Dy letter of 27.2.19 in their entirety

It is not clear if under the new arrangement there will be occasion for the District Magte to pass his remarks as only the Counterfoil will be sent to the Police direct by the Magistrate and not the whole sheet thro' the Dt Magte as before. Sir, Adverting to G.O.No.J.3416-25/Pol.49-10-6 of the 18th May 1912 countermanding the practice of sending round the Police (A) charge sheets from the courts concerned to the District Magistrate, to be eventually returned through the Police Department, I have the honor to state the Police (B) reports of cases, reported by them as false and of (C) reports of cases which cannot be detected and are submitted to the Magistrate concerned for orders, continue to be submitted by subordinate Magistrates for the remarks of the District Magistrate, who finally (in his capacity as Head of Police) send them on to the District Superintendent of Police. They are sent on by the District Superintendent of Police to the Taluk Police, who at this stage take noted of the Magistrate's final orders and then return the reports to the courts of the Magistrates concerned.

This round about way of of intimating to the Police whether a B or C report was accepted or otherwise, obviously involves delay and necessitates the transmission of the records of Criminal (Miscellaneous) cases to other than the District Magistrate's court in a manner opposed to the principles of the Criminal Procedure Code and the Chief Court rulings on the subject.

To

D. M.Narasinga Rao, Esqr., B.A. B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, General Dept.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.2802/Pol. dated the 20th January 1916, forwarding a list of unanswered references wherein is shown as pending your letter No.J.1745/Pol. 256-13-2 dated the 7th December 1914, regarding certain alterations in the course of submission of the police B and C final reports, as suggested by the Mysore District Magistrate, I have the honour to state that I have had to consult the several Deputy Commissioners and the Superintendents of Police, and in view of their unanimous opinion, I consider that the suggestion made by the Mysore District Magistrate of adding a column to the existing B and C forms similar to that provided in the charge sheet - A - column 22, is a sound one and may be adopted

2. This additional column obviates the necessity of returning the B and C forms to the Police as has been the present practice, and the slip showing the disposal could be detached and returned to the Police by the magistrates, as they do in the case of A reports. Revised forms of B and C sheets are herein enclosed for reference, along with an A form.

3. In introducing this revised form, the Superintendent, Government Press, may be requested to print and supply such registers in lieu of registers numbers 37 and 38 noted in Vol.II, Part B of the Mysore Police Manual (Draft), submitted with my letter No.4040/496 dated 3rd February 1916.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No.J.4581-Pol.256-13-4 dated 22nd May 1916 enquiring whether the new form of charge-sheet referred to in Government Proceedings No.J.3416-25-Pol.49-10-6 dated 18th May 1912 has been brought into force, I have the honor to state that it has not yet been printed or come into use. While the introduction of this new form of charge-sheet and a fresh and simpler form of intimation of disposal of cases by Magistrates referred to in the last sentence of paragraph 1 of the Government Proceedings was under consideration the judgment of the Chief Court in Bore Gowda VS Government of Mysore (vide Mysore Chief Court Reports Volume XIX p.123) necessitated the reconsideration of the whole question again.

No. Que/

SUBJECT.

Stating that the new form of charge-sheet referred to in Govt. Progs. No.J.3416-25/Pol.49-10-6 date 18th May 1912 has not been printed or come into use.

"contain 1. the names of the parties. 2 the "nature of the information 3. the names of the "persons who appear to be acquainted with the "circumstances of the case and a few other parti- "culars. That is, it should contain very much what "the ordinary private complaint contains viz the "parties' names, a general resume of the circum- "stances of the offence and the names of witnesses. "Whenever therefore a charge-sheet contains any re- "cord of the Police investigation, or any detail "of the particular evidence, any witness is expec- "ted to give, it is going beyond the prescription "of the law and in so far as it contains such re- "cords, it is not a public document and an accused "is not entitled to a copy of such entries. This "view is supported clearly by the specific prohi- "bition in Section 172 and the implied prohibition "in Section 162 which forbids an accused except "under special circumstances therein detailed, "having access to the details of the Police in- "vestigation and the details of statements made by "any persons to the Police. We are therefore of "opinion that an accused person is entitled of "right to copies of only such portions of a charge- "sheet as are prescribed by Section 173 to be con- "tained in the police report submitted under that "section".

. Under this ruling, the subordinate Magistrates would have to differentiate on barely going through the charge-sheets, what the portions are which are prescribed under the Criminal Procedure Code of which copies can be granted to the accused and what not. In practice, such a discretion, even before any evidence is let in, is likely to embarass and is often liable to be erroneously used in a way the code does not contemplate.

4. It was therefore considered advisable to remodel the whole of the charge-sheet form after comparing the same with those in use elsewhere. The Bengal form was received only lately with their Manual published in 1915.

5. After comparing the several forms in use in British India, I find most of them contain particulars not prescribed by the Code of Criminal Procedure. The form recently prescribed for adoption in Mysore is in the main the same as that of Madras and refers in column 6 to what points each witness is called to prove. This has been omitted in the Bengal Form, and it is this that has been specifically pointed out by the Chief Court as being unnecessary under the Code. If the accused gets an inkling of the points which each witness has been called upon to speak, he has the prosecution brief in his hands, a state of things not desirable for obvious reasons.

6. It is therefore considered necessary to have the charge-sheet Form revised as per draft enclosed which I request that you may be so good as to move the Government to sanction.

7. The enclosed Form also provides a counterfoil which can be filled up by the Magistrate and returned to the Police, informing them of the result of the case. This will obviate the necessity for prescribing a separate intimation form as was suggested in the Government Proceedings referred to above.

8. Regarding B and C Forms, the only difficulty at present is that the whole record has to travel from the Magistrate to the Deputy Commissioner, the Superintendent and on to the Taluk Police who resubmit it to the Magistrate for being filed. This circuitous route entails long delay and sometimes the records miscarry. This can be avoided by adding an intimation slip to the forms as proposed in my letter No.C.104 dated 12th February 1916 and I request that you will kindly move Government to sanction the proposal.

From

K. R. SRINIVASA IYENGAR, Esq., M.A.,
Offg. Inspector-General of Police in Mysore.

To

C. S. Balasundaram Iyer Esquire, B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness
the Maharaja of Mysore, ~~General Department.~~

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.J.2024/Police 256-13-6 dated 6th December 1916, I have the honor to submit herewith, as desired, a form of the charge sheet revised in the light of the observations of Government contained therein.

2. I, however, beg to submit that charge sheets submitted by the police correspond to complaints preferred by private parties before Courts, and there is no reason why the accused in Police cases should be given an opportunity to know beforehand the details of the evidence that may be let in against them, any more than the accused in private cases who cannot get from the complaint petition or the witness list, any information regarding the points on which each witness is called to give evidence. Considering that, under the law, accused persons have a right to recall and cross examine the prosecution witnesses even after a charge is framed, it cannot be said that they will be placed at any great disadvantage by not being made acquainted before the commencement of the trial with the points on which each witness is proposed to be examined by the prosecution. On the other hand, a knowledge beforehand of the points on which each witness is expected to speak, will afford accused persons an opportunity of tampering with the more important and material witnesses, and thus enable them, as emphasized by Mr. Srikanteswara Aiyar in his letter No.1073/86 dated 24/26th August 1916, to have the prosecution brief in their hands. It is evidently on a consideration of these circumstances that it has been held by the Chief Court, in their judgment quoted by Mr. Srikanteswara Aiyar in his letter referred to above, that the accused are not entitled to a copy of the entries in the charge sheet relating to the points on which the prosecution witnesses are to speak. I may also mention, in this connection, that in the Forms of charge sheet prescribed by the Governments of Bengal and Central Provinces and in use there, no column is provided for giving particulars of the points on which each witness is to speak. I would, for the above reasons, respectfully urge for the consideration of Government the desirability of adopting the Revised Form of Police charge sheet as submitted by my predecessor with his letter referred to above.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. G. 747/Pol.256-13-8 dated the 16th July, I have the honor to state that the position taken up by Mr. C. Srikantesvara Aiyar seems to me to be correct in view of the decision of the Chief Court in 19 M.C.R. page 121. In the case reported in 20 Madras 189, there was a difference between the Judges of the Madras High Court as to whether a charge sheet was a Public document or not within the meaning of section 74 of the Indian Evidence Act. The majority of the Judges held that it was not a public document and that the accused was not entitled to a copy of the same. Our Chief Court however have followed the opinion of the minority and have held that the charge sheet is a public document. But they have introduced a distinction between the contents of a charge sheet. They held that the accused is entitled to only that much of information as the Police officer is required to embody in the charge sheet under the provision of section 173 Criminal Procedure Code and they state that the information required in column 7 of the charge sheet under the form now in vogue viz what points each witness deposes to is not what is required by the Code and that as it forms part of the special diary, the accused is not entitled to a copy of the same. It is not open to me to discuss the correctness of this view, however I may dissent from it and it has to be taken to be the correct exposition of the law until it is over-ruled by the Chief Court. Now the facts to be embodied in the charge sheet are either for the information of the Judge or of the accused. If it be taken to be the former, then it is an unnecessary thing since the judge can get all the information he wants from the Special Diaries. If it be taken to be the latter which seems to me to be the correct view then the insertion of the same in the charge sheet is of no use to him since he cannot obtain a copy of the same. I am therefore of opinion that the charge sheet should contain only the information which a Police Officer is bound under law to embody and should eschew all extraneous matter which will be ultra vires of him to report to the Magistrate. There is also the practical difficulty of differentiating between the matter which falls exactly within the provision of law and which does not so fall and having regard to the qualifications of the ministerial heads of Magisterial Courts, it is better I think that the form be as simple as possible and should omit the information which is now being embodied in column 7.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
